

General Data Protection Regulations and the Barlow Mailing List

Your data is used by The Barlow to create a mailing and contact list.

The mailing list is used to provide News and Events and general Barlow notices and information. It is also used to contact people who are volunteers or Friends of The Barlow for specific purposes related to these roles.

The GDPR sign up form is your consent for us to send information to you in whatever format you choose. We cannot send information to you unless you have consented via the GDPR sign up form which can be either electronically or paper based.

At the bottom of any email you receive from us you will find a link to allow you to change your options or unsubscribe at any time. You can request a copy of the data we hold at any time and can also contact us at info@thebarlow.co.uk to request changes.

Your data will be kept confidential and available only to employees or volunteers who need to have access to it.

The data will be stored on the Mailchimp marketing system and you can find information about their privacy policy here:
