Hi Christine,

I hope you are well. I received an email from our CEO John Roberts yesterday with a view for looking to receive a grant to help funding the redevelopment of a five-a-side football pitch at the Edgworth Crick Club. I would assume the email conversation we had in March (below) all relate to this?

I wanted to see whether there was any approach being made by either The Barlow or by the cricket club to secure any additional funding, as to avoid any replication from our part. Also, I would need to supply quite a bit of documentation regarding permissions from the Lancashire FA and possibly the ECB.

I'm hoping you could shed some light on this?

Many thanks,

Hi Christine,

Apologies for your missed call; I'm in and out of meetings all day. I forwarded to our PR team to see if they could shed any light, but sadly they are also unaware of any sponsorship. I can only assume this has been arranged through a private arrangement or at director level rather than through business channels.

I have asked Dave to contact you directly.

Best wishes,

Hello Justin

I have just left you a phone message. Perhaps you could let me know if you have forwarded our letter to the appropriate recipients. And if so, could you let me know who they are.

Thank you

Hi Christine,

Thanks for the email. I'll make some enquiries 'in-house' as it sounds as though this will have come from AO, rather than AO Smile as it appears on the outset to be sponsorship. Edgeworth CC also appear to be using the AO logo which would have been arranged through the AO business rather than with the Foundation.

I'll also get in touch with Dave Enright at Edgeworth to see if he can shed any light.

Many thanks,

Dear Justin

Thanks for your prompt response. I am afraid we know very little except that Edgworth Cricket and Recreation Club approached the Trustees with plans for the artificial pitch based on a donation from yourselves. As you will appreciate the Trustees cannot give this proper consideration without further information as specified in our letter.

The Chair of the Edgworth Cricket and Recreation Club is Dave Enright, who was copied into my email to you

Hope this helps

Dear Christine,

Thank you for the email and attached letter. May I please ask who you were in conversation with regarding the agreed donation, and when the agreement was made? Any information you could offer would be greatly appreciated.

Many thanks,
